NEW SIGNED ENGLISH BOOKS FOR CHILDREN

The Gallaudet Press has recently published Little Red Riding Hood in signed English -- the first of a series of teaching aids developed by the Pre-School English Project which is served by faculty and students of the Art, Drama, and Pre-School departments and the Office of Institutional Research. The book's text is by Karen Luczak, with illustrations by Ralph R. Miller, Sr.

Posters, film strips, and videotapes will be published in the future. Books currently in production include Goldilocks, Hanzel and Gretel, The Three Little Pigs, and The Night Before Christmas. A projected 52 title series will be published over the next four years.

Little Red Riding Hood is available from the bookstore at $2.00. Also available is a wall poster with words and signs for "Rock-abye-Baby," at a cost of $1.25.

SOME RECENT VISITORS

Last week students from the Marie Katzenbach and Ontario Schools for the Deaf visited the campus....A group of 35 audiology and speech majors from Indiana University of Pennsylvania spent last Friday observing our Pre-College and College programs....The College hosted Anna Leivestad and Mari Saethre from Norway last week. Miss Leivestad, a deaf-blind woman, has been traveling in the United States in conjunction with an award she won as "Heroine for Everyday" from the Lions Club in Norway.

This coming week, a group of special education majors from Eastern Mennonite College and 55 upper school students from the American School for the Deaf will visit Kendall Green.

"TO A YOUNG DEAF CHILD"

Listen
with your eyes
and to your own surprise
life is all about:
rivers run,
insects crawl,
flowers climb,
snowflakes fall---
each
without a shout

Yes, listen with your eyes
And your heart will hear...
